Following their victory in the Devon League last summer where they won the winning the triples events, the three teams from Wellington Pétanque Club have continued to play well in the 2024 Devon Winter Pairs competition.

Competing in League A Wellington 1 players Jo Beer and Dave Cheeseman have played two matches, battling very wet weather as well as their opponents to win both 3 – 0.

Alison Newberry and Barry Ede – their team name is 'AliBarry' – have played three matches in League A and won two.

Team Salamanca – Geoff Sully and Michael Wheatley – have won one of the two matches in League D played so far. There are 39 points available and Salamanca had a stunning victory over The Boules Bandits 38 – 1.

A spokesperson for the club said, "Pétanque is a fun, sociable and fast growing sport which is played world-wide. If you would like to come along to the terrain at The Basins to give it a try we will be pleased to show you the game.
